The general press is so full of propaganda releases from the Ford administration that it is sometimes difficult to get an accurate picture of what is happening in Washington. The media has accepted all the happy news about prosperity without too much critical comment.

Because of this state of affairs you may have missed the cruel, agonizing fact that unemployment in the nation for the month of June went up from 7.3 per cent to 7.5 per cent.

This was reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics which has manipulated the figures as much as they possibly could to present the best picture possible on behalf of the administration. No juggling of the figures, however, could hide the fact that more and more Americans are looking for jobs that do not exist.

Concern for the jobless does not register very strongly with the middle class oriented media nor with the reactionaries who are running things in Washington. The prosperity of the Ford administration is an illusion and a mirage. Washington has been selling a line of propaganda that 7 per cent unemployment is an acceptable figure and the establishment has bought it.

President Ford has reacted to the rise in unemployment as one might expect. He took occasion to veto a new public works bill that was sent to his desk from the Congress. The bill would have provided 350,000 jobs at a cost of less than 4 billion dollars.

It has become fashionable to claim that such programs to provide jobs do not work. It is a pity that those who take this view have little or no personal experience in hunting for a job. Such programs worked very well in the great depression under President Roosevelt.

They won't work now because the reactionaries do not want them to work. President Ford is playing politics by pandering to the conservative bloc and to all those who look upon unemployment as mainly a problem for Blacks, Spanish speaking minorities and native American Indians.

The government will help the corporations when they get in trouble and provide subsidies for business. We have socialism for the rich and free enterprise for the poor. And this election year is our chance to make a change in that situation. RIGHT ON!

Washington State Church Ushers Attend National Convention

Forty-two Washington State United Church Ushers attended the fifty-seventh annual convention of the National United Church Ushers Association of America, Incorporated. The Convention was held in New York City at the Statler Hilton Hotel, July 25-30, 1976.

The pre-registered delegation was in excess of 1800, with other delegates registering at the site.

The General Convention has three main bodies: Seniors, Young Adults and Juniors. These departments work collectively and independently throughout the session.

The Washington State delegates have three Senior National Offices and one Junior National Office.

Membership in the Washington State United Usher Board is open to all Church Usher Boards in the State. For further information, contact Mr. Robert Sherron, State President or any member board.

Black Academy of Music Hosts Japanese Visitors

Seattle's Black Academy of Music hosted Ms. Midori Yamanaka and Ms. Chicko Okabe including thirty other guests from Toyko. The Japanese visitors are Black Music fans and were eager to tour and meet members of the Academy under the direction of Prof. Joe Brazil.

The Academy Community Orchestra has gained international distinction in their rendition of performing jazz and are attracting audiences during Tuesday and Thursday evening public rehearsals at the Academy. The Japanese visitors were unusually impressed because rarely does the public have an opportunity to watch a big band during rehearsals. They were astonished at the tedious music efforts affronting the musicians during rehearsals. Black music sales are currently soaring in Japan.

Youth Recieves Honors

Ronald Richards, Huong Tran, Phyllis Hofer, Donna Magee and Brenda Coley are spending an exciting week at Central Washington State College in Ellensburg as participants and scholarship recipients in the 1976 BUSINESS WEEK: Understanding Private Enterprise. Their attendance was made possible by the Association of Washington Business.

The Youth were selected to attend the August 8-14 Conference on the basis of their interest in business as a future career and for their tutor employment competency during their JOY placement with the Tacoma Urban League, Inc. Cross-Age Tutoring Program, summer component. The five are a small percentage of 160 youth placed with CATP through the Job Opportunities for Youth (JOY), under administration of the City of Tacoma-Comprehensive Employment Service.

Rams Challenge Seahawks

SEATTLE-- The Seattle Seahawks face the biggest challenge of their young existence Saturday night against the Los Angeles Rams in a preseasoh game in the Kingdome.

The Rams are coming off three consecutive National Football Conference Western Division titles and have had little difficulty in their first two pre-season encounters this season defeating Tampa Bay, 26-3, and Dallas, 26-14.

Tickets for Saturday night's game are still available and may be purchased at the Fidelity Lane outlets in the Seattle area.

KIRO NewsRadio 7 with Pete Gross calling the action will broadcast the 7:30 p.m. game with Wayne Cody and Don Heinrich adding the color. KIRO-TV (Channel 7) will telecast the game on a delayed basis at 11 p.m. Saturday with Gary Justice and Ted Dawson at Mikeside.

"We saw some progress last week," said Seattle head coach Jack Patera, refering to his team's 27-16 loss to Chicago in Spokane. "We did some things better, but I'm disappointed they were not more visible."

Patera has not indicated his selection at quarterback but Jim Zorn has been the most effective. The 6-2, 200-pound, first-year player leads the team in passing and scoring along with being the second leading rusher. In fact, Zorn has accounted for all five of the Seahawks' touchdowns this year, rushing for two and passing for three.

Contending with Zorn for the starting assignment are veteran Neil Graff and rookie steve Myer, who did not see action in either of Seattle's first two pre-season games.

Zorn has completed 21 of 45 passes for 304 yards and rushed for 57 yards on six carries in the losses to San Francisco, 27-20, and Chicago.

Los Angeles will counter with a talented quarterbacking trio of its own and Rams coach Chuck Knox has not indicated his starter either. Bidding for the starting assignment are veterans James Harris and Ron Jaworski, plus rookie Pat Haden.

High Percentage Replaces Welfare with Paycheck

The federally funded Work Incentive (WIN) program placed 5,754 former we lfare recipients in unsubsidized fulltime employment in Washington during fiscal year 1976.

Milton Burdman, deputy secretaryk Department of Social and Health Services, said the program placed another 1,200 in job training programs, and 519 in subsidized on-the-job training (OJT).

"Washington has always ranked high in WIN success rates since inception of the program in 1968," he said. "While our state accounts for only 2.92 percent of the nation's public assistance population, we produce 3.32 percent of the nation's WIN placements."

During the year, 16,879 recipients ranging in age from 16 to 65 were found eligible for WIN services, he said. Of these, 10,095 participated actively in the counseling, referral and other programs offered, with "successes" placed in employment or training totalling 7,470, or about 75 percent.

The WIN program is provided in nine metropolitan areas of the state, he said: Seattle, Renton, Auburn, Tacoma, Bremerton, Everett, Spokane, Yakima - Toppenish and Vancouver. Funded under the Social Security Act, it is cooperatively staffed by DSHS and the Department of Employment Security.

Registration with WIN is mandatory, in those locations where it is available, for employable adults accepting welfare, and also to their children at age 16 if they are no longer in school and not employed.

In those areas of the state not served by WIN, approximately 14,000 welfare recipients were helped during fiscal year 1976 by the DSHS Employment and Training Program, with comparable success. Of these, 2,143 secured full-time employment, and assistance was reduced for 2,232 who secured part-time work, Burdman said.

He noted that these figures for both programs do not include the hundredsof former welfare recipients -- mostly short-term -- who regained financial independence during the period through their own efforts, without formal job-finding help from the State.

Brock Adams Will Run Again

Seattle, Washington -- Congressman Brock Adams (D-7th) announced today that he will run for re-election to Congress from the 7th District of Washington.

Adams, who is Chairman of the House Budget Committee and the ranking Democrat on the Transportation Subcommittee of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, has served the Seventh District of Seattle and south King County since 1965.

In making his announcement, Adams said, "I have this week filed for re-election to the House of Representatives. It has been my honor and privilege to serve the people of the 7th District for the past twelve years, and I want to express my gratitude to them for their support."

Adams added, "I hope the people in Seattle and south King County will continue to support me and my efforts to restore sound financial management as well as compassionate, progressive direction to the federal government.

"In February of this year, I suggested a four-year program by which the federal government could bring its budget into balance. We have now begun the balancing process, and I would like very much to remain in public offlce to help achieve this goal," he said.

Adams also announced that the Brock Adams Senate Committee will disband and that those people in the State of Washington who contributed to the Senate campaign effort have received rebate checks based on the amount remaining in the Senate campaign fund.

Congressman Adams added, "I want to thank all those individuals who have helped in the preparation of a Senate campaign. I indicated when the campaign opened that I would not be a candidate if Senator Jackson ran for re-election. Senator Jackson has now filed for the United States Senate; therefore, I will not be a candidate for that office."

"In addition to my working on my own campaign, I am particularly pleased to have been appointed Executive Director of the Washington State Carter for President Campaign," Adams said.

SOME YEARS AGO a florist put an ad in The New York Times written entirely in shorthand. It suggested that secretaries remind their bosses to buy flowers for their wives.

Give Your Lawn a Happy Face.

Green is Beautiful!

To keep your lawn green and beautiful all summer long, regular soaking every four or five days is necessary. Surface water simply encourages shallow-rooting. This causes the grass to dry out very rapidly and encourages brown spots. Northwest lawn experts say the proper way to water is to leave the sprinkler in one location until the water penetrates to a depth of at least six inches. Soils in our area require about two hours to accomplish this or until approximately two inches of water has been applied. By watering deeply, each time, it will not be necessary to water as frequently.

The Green River is Tacoma's main source of water supply, supplemented by more than a dozen deep wells, mostly in the city. Even during periods of greatest use in the summer there are no water restrictions or curtailments. Although our water is a renewable resource, like all natural resources, we encourage you to use it wisely.

BICENTENNIAL TEA - GALA EVENT

The Fellowship Hall of the Bethlehem Baptist Church was the scene on Sunday afternoon, August 1st, for the Annual Tea sponsored by the Saturday Morning Brunch Club. The theme for this Bicentennial event was "200 Years of Progress - Lest We Forget." The Hall was gayly decorated in the patriotic colors of the red, white, and blue with the center of attraction being a display of many antiques representative of the early years of the American civilization. The patriotic theme was further emphasized during the program when soloists Marian Griffin sang "America" and Martha Nash sang "This Land is My Land". The Guild Girls sang a medley of songs consisting of "Lift Every Voice", "This is My Country" and "Let There Be Peace". Little Miss Elaine Warren entertained with an instrumental Accordian solo. Mrs. Thelma Bryant presented a reading: Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address". Approximately seventy guests were served and entertained by the Brunch Club members who were appropriately attired in their Bicentennial costumes.

Some of the activities in which this club is engaged include sending girls to "Girl State" and honoring mothers and proxy mothers at an annual luncheon on the Saturday preceeding Mothers' Day each year. Mrs. Teresa Rice is president and Mrs. Viola Norwood served as chairperson for this event. Addie Brown, Reporter.

Staff of Baldwin Tire and Brake Service Enjoys Annual Fish Derby Meet

The much talked-about annual event by the men of Baldwin Tire and Service and friends got underway at 3 a.m. Sunday, July 25, 1976.

We all arrived at West Port about 5 a.m. in time for check-in. Some of us were too late to eat breakfast but didn't seem to mind because all thoughts and talk were about who would catch the first largest and most fish.

The weather was warm and sunny until we were out to sea, then it got cool which didn't matter.

There were twelve of us in our party and 20 others from Seattle when the boat stopped and all lines were over the side with quite excitement. Five minutes later those waited-for words came: "FISH ON". The first fish was Mr. Baldwin's. Then everyone got busy for the largest and the most. John Womack got the largest and Chuck Lane caught the most with 5 salmon. There were twelve in the derby. L. Baldwin, G. Baldwin, Winston Walker, Jerry Ellerson of Baldwin Tire and Brake, Chuck Lane, Jeff Lane and a friend from 7 Eleven Food Store at 40th Street, James Henderson of Tacoma Facts, James Sorrells, John Womack, John Bajeman from Motor Parts Co., and C. Grace.

There were many fish caught including salmon, mackrel, and lake sea bass. Everyone had a fishing good time and the talk immediately went to next year about who will catch the first, largest and the most fish next year.
